Nanta chia?

Review the Choctaw sentence structure and translate these sentences to Choctaw.

Subject (sub., adj.) subject marker noun/ adjective verb/ to be neg./tense mrkr/question mrkr

1. I am a man. Hattak sia.
2. I am a police officer. Nan vlhuka sia.
3. I am a doctor. Alikchi sia.
4. Are you a Choctaw? Chahta chia ho?
5. Are you a Choctaw child? Chahta vlla chia ho?
6. Are you an old woman? Ohoyo sipokni chia ho?
7. I am not an old man. Hattak sipokni sia kiyo.
8. Are you a teacher? Ikhvnanchi chia ho?
9. Is that man a doctor? Hattak mvt alikchi yo?
10. I am an African-American. Hattak lusa sia.
11. I am a woman. Ohoyo sia.
12. Is that girl a cook? Vlla tek mvt hoponi yo?

Change these sentences to English.

13. Na hullo hattak chia ho? Are you a Caucasian man?
14. Ofi mvt sipokni. That dog is old.
15. Hattak himitta yvmmvt alikchi. That young man is a doctor.
16. Ohoyo pvt nan vlhtuka. This woman is a police officer.

©Website Choctaw Nation 2011 All Rights Reserved